Description

A lovely Victorian pine farmhouse table dating from the late 19th Century. It has a thick planked top with three wide boards and stands on turned tapered legs. The top has a lovely warm colour and nice aged patina. It is a good large size comfortably seating 6 and there is good leg clearance of 24 1/2" (62cm) all the way around the table. There are various signs of age and use but nothing detrimental and overall it is in good condition. There are signs of historic worm in some of the legs which has all been treated as a precaution and the table is strong and sturdy. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
