Description

This is a superb quality very elegant Georgian Pembroke table. Solid mahogany and gorgeous design. The sides fold down neatly and are easy to set up as well. Clean overall condition with an attractive light aged patina. The best detail for me however is the banded detail around the top but also set into the vertical curved edge of the table top again all the way around! An incredible amount of skill is required to do this this well and fine. There is also more banding on the back panel. Single drawer that opens and closes smoothly.
