This is a charming rustic antique English Victorian pine chest, which retains its original lock and handles, with ample storage space inside, circa 1860, in excellent original condition. The Victorian trunk has been constructed with a twin-plank flat top, with a cleated moulding, above single plank sides, front and back. Retaining the original steel carrying handles and key escutcheon, it also retains the original working steel lock (with key) and oval shaped brass key escutcheon. The interior is clean, dry, practical and usable. The lid retains its original steel ...
