Description

A good example of an English Georgian copper brandy warming pan. It has a rounded body with a sparrow beak lip and a long turned wooden handle. It comes with its original lid with square handle. It is a good quality piece and very well made. Both the lid and the body are engraved with initials "J.F.S". It is in good original condition. There are signs of age and use, some small dents, dinks and surface marks but nothing untoward or detrimental. There are no major damages, splits or holes and it is water tight. It has been cleaned and lightly polished to retain its aged patina and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements: Height : 4 1/4" / 11cm Width : 4 1/4" / 11cm Height inc handle : 7 1/2" / 19cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
