Description

So rare to come across a pair of matching perfume bottles, this elegant pair are probably the most sought-after colour, Cranberry graduating down to a clearer glass at the base. The screw-top lids are made from English sterling silver, hallmarked for Birmingham 1896, making these true Victorian examples. The makers mark is also present CM for the silversmith, Charles Mappin. The top of the lid has a vacant circular cartouche which could be engraved by your silversmith if you wished to personalize it. Excellent condition, measuring 6 1/2" tall x 2 3/4" max.
