Description

A good quality Victorian mahogany wine table dating from the mid to late 19th Century. It has a beautiful spiral support set on tripod splayed legs with scrolling feet. The top is made from one single piece of mahogany with a lovely scalloped edge. The table has a nice rich colour and is strong and sturdy with a good level top. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. There are some signs of age and use, a few small surface marks and knocks and a small chip in the rim but nothing detrimental and there are no major damages. It has been gently polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Height : 28" / 71cm Diameter of Top : 19" / 48cm The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
