Description

Exceptionally fine centre table with crisply carved four splay base and made of a very fine cut of exotic timber that has faded to a nicely patinated golden brown, this must have cost a lot to commission when new and it follows that it would therefore have been made for an important house. We especially like the way that the legs begin parallel to the pedestal and terminate parallel to the floor. Circa 1830 120cm wide 71cm tall TF011

Internal Ref: TF011
