Description

A C19th, matched set of six, elm and ash framed, rush seated, Lancashire type, country dining chairs. These chairs feature a double row of turned spindles back, turned style uprights, over rush woven seats, raised on rounded front legs with off-set pad feet, squared rear legs, all supported by stretchers. A charming set of old country chairs. Serviced, cleaned and waxed, and ready for use. Dimensions: These chairs measure approximately 96 cm (38") tall, 44 cm (17.25") wide, and 48 cm (19") deep. The seat height is approximately 43 cm (17"). One chair seat is a little lower at 41.5 cm (16.5"). Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - These chairs are in a reasonable and very serviceable condition, commensurate with their age, and are structurally sound and sturdy. Three have a very small amount of play in the joints, not worthy of tightening. All loose joints in need of tightening were tightened when we serviced these. There are some age related marks and blemishes on the frames. Few minor old repairs. Front seat rail cover absent from one chair. Seats are all sound and very usable, with some missing the odd fraying strand of reed. Some ...
