Description

This is an exceptional pair of antique English Neo-classical Revival silver plated wine coolers bearing the makers mark of the renowned English silversmith Elkington, dated 1873. The wine coolers stand on circular pedestal bases on top of reeded bodies with decorative lion head handles. Each has an engraved cartouche with the inscription 'Presented to the 1st Lancashire Rifle Volunteers by Lt Colonel Bousfield 1882'. Bousfield is regarded as one of the founders of what eventually became the Territorial Army. Add some classical elegance to your home with this lovely decorative pair of coolers. Condition: In excellent original condition. As antique items, the coolers show minor signs of use commensurate with age, these minor condition issues are mentioned for accuracy and, as seen in the accompanying photographs, they display beautifully.
