Description

A fabulous watercolour portrait of Mrs Emily Maria Gawne (1814-1899) of Kentraugh House Isle of Man by Philip Tennyson Cole, (1862-1939). Circa 1880. Generally known as Tennyson Cole, he was an English society portrait painter in both oils and watercolour, having painted both kings Edward VII and George V, among many other high society figures. This wonderful watercolour painting is presented in the original frame, which has been sensitively and professionally restored and fitted with a replacement slip in 23.5 ct gold leaf.
