Description

Lovely little George II mahogany fold over supper or tea table c.1750. Stands flat against the wall as a very handsome little console table or open the hinged rear leg and fold open the top to make a square supper table for four people. Solid mahogany table leaves with serpentine shaped front and moulded edges. Over a gracefully curving mahogany veneered apron with a shaped and cockbeaded bottom edge. Raised on moulded legs with particularly attractive carved foliate brackets to at the front, sides and rear. Note the chamfered inner corner of the legs, typical of the period. Minor wear and repairs to the veneers on the apron, otherwise very good condition retaining the original brass hinges. Cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Dimensions: Width 34" Height 29" Depth 17"
