Description

Early 20th century articulated lay figure. A good example of an early 20th century articulated artists lay figure. With brass and spring joints that allow this figure to move into various positions. Mounted onto a painted bespoke stand as shown. With a deep natural patination of colour and good simple form. Dimensions in inches: H 14" x W 4" x D 2" Age: 1920 - 1940 Origin: Unknown Condition: Aged This item shows natural wear and aging through obvious use with worn marks across all the surfaces, missing one foot and damage to one leg in the form of worn holes. This doesn't effect the form as its mounted to a solid base as shown and can be displayed as intended. We strongly suggest reviewing all the photos provided as part of this advert and propose questions where sections are unclear to avoid disappointment upon purchase. A direct message usually takes 24 hours to answer. For multiple years we have sold antique items globally, please expect our items to show relevant age and natural wear, Items only restored due to breaks and major loss, and we always stipulate this in our condition report.
