The Victorian painting depicts a large farm house on the left-hand bank, a farm yard barn on the right-hand side, with a man holding a hose near a cart, with two other people on the left-hand side. There is a gaggle of geese on the left-hand side near small stream of water leading to a pond. In the background are a range of hills and trees against a cloudy sky. The painting has the skill to draw you in with its range of rustic colour hues and texture depicting the quintessential Welsh count...
