Description

Fabulous pair of Gothic revival style hall chairs with walnut frames. These stunning Victorian chairs have stunningly carved back rests, four beautifully turned legs with curved X stretchers with central finial. There is an historical repair to one back rest (shown in pictures). The seats are upholstered in an attractive pink floral fabric which is clean with no rips or marks. If the covering is not to your liking they are simple to recover to suit any décor. These are a well crafted solid pair of antique chairs with wonderful colouring and patina that will provide style & function to any home.
