Description

Handsome Victorian arm chair with oak frame and leather upholstery. The back rest has a beautifully shaped centre splat and a carved shaped top rail. The arms sweep down to a scroll hand grip, and a leather pad armrest. The leather seat does show a little damage shown in picture however I think that is an easy fix. The square legs are united with an H stretcher with extra support the the back two legs. The frame is solid with amazing colouring, graining and patination. This is a very attractive chair that will add style and history to any room it is placed. Seat height 54cm
