Date of manufacture: 19th Century

Description

An unusual 19th century mini roulette game. This is not the usual form found, The carved inner spinner is beautifully carved, around a metal cage with a wooden fruitwood circular top. This allows the ball to be spun in without loosing it. Around the outside are the black and red numbers inset into a fruitwood base. Collection label on the base from the Charlton Collection. A very lovely example, measuring 9cm w x 4cm h.
