Description

Superbly stylish and undeniable quality is this Art Deco 1930's hexagonal table. On first impressive one can't not be captivated by the veneers, the top has an intricate pattern of Walnut book paged veneers with solid panel sides of strongly figured walnut to the sides. The whole piece is a mid tone honey colour and offers not only exceptional craftsmanship but functionality too. Extremely heavy and sturdy piece of furniture. Generously sized and with internal storage for books, magazines etc this table is an ideal candidate for most living areas. The whole table has been restored and so comes to you in good condition, having been newly French polished. Dating to the 1930's and of UK origin. Offered with free mainland UK delivery
