Description

This is a very pretty satinwood table which is beautifully decorated with hand painted polychrome flower heads and trailing leaves to the elegant brass edged oval top, and has neat tapering legs with pretty harebells surmounted by ribbons. The table dates from the late 19th century and is in excellent condition with a delightful colour and only a few very minor age related marks as would be expected. This table is of very neat and attractive proportions, measuring 74cm high, 74 cm wide and 52cm deep. UK delivery can be arranged for £50 plus vat with our trusted furniture courier to most destinations.
