Description

Antique Georgian Country Corner chair. A rare antique corner chair, ideal for any period setting. We bring to you this excellent condition Georgian solid Elm corner chair believed to be made around C1800. This very rare chair features a shaped top rail raised on 3 turned pillars and simple slats in between. The chair has a drop in seatpad which is currently covered in a traditional handmade needlework tapestry. The inner padding is in good condition with no sagging and the chair is comfortable to sit in. The chair's base consists of simple square legs with an X stretcher between. This lovely little chair has lots of history and time-worn character with original patina. This charming chair is in a lovely original condition which we have just enhanced by carefully waxing this item to preserve and give a natural sheen. We would be able to re-upholster this chair (for obvious added costs) in a material of your choice if the tapestry is not to your taste, please enquire about this. Please note; This item is in a lovely condition for its age as shown by the photographs below, however being an antique item of this age there may be minor blemishes here and there which we feel ...
