Description

Antique Victorian Gothic Revival Buffet Table A stunning period server buffet. We are delighted to offer this stunning rare Victorian C1880 Gothic revival Oak serving/buffet table ideal for a period dining room for serving off or by a serving hatch. This Buffet table is also ideal to be used as a sideboard or as a long hall table as it is quite narrow. The table has 2 large shelves, which is great for serving or displaying ornaments and features a carved and shaped rear up-stand (removable) complete with carved rosettas either side. The table has octagonal column turnings with beautiful carvings on the legs with leaf carvings going down the legs and is embellished with English roses to the faces of the legs. The table features its original waxed finish with the most beautiful original lightly faded Oak colour and original patina. The table has obviously been really cared for all of its life and looks exceptional for it. This quality table is stamped by the cabinet maker to the underside which reads 'T WILLIAMS'. We have sympathetically restored this item maintaining all of the original patina and age by just carefully cleaning and waxing this item to preserve and pro...
