Description

A Pair of 19th Century Carved Marble Decorative Corbels. The hand carved salvaged corbels were previously part of an architectural feature or fireplace. Attractive hand carved scroll work to their upper sections. The lower sections having fruit and floral decoration. Beautifully detailed they work as stand alone decorative architectural elements. They could also be used to create a shelf, brackets, console table, or used as wall or fireplace corbels. Chips, losses and hairline cracks but they are solid and sturdy.
