Description

A grand serpent ring from the early 20th Century depicting a beautiful, coiled snake crowned with five graduating old European cut diamonds chasing down the head with superb SI 1 clarity – H colour (approx. 0.30ct total). Serpent rings became increasingly popular in the Victorian era after Prince Albert gifted the young Queen Victoria with a serpent ring during their courtship. The snake came to symbolise an enduring love and friendship with its coiled shape representing eternity. The piece is all 18ct gold with a thick, coiled band that has developed a lovely smoothness and patina over time. It looks wonderful wrapped around the finger and is complete with London hallmarks within, dating it to 1920. We recommend you insure for £2,300. We can provide a written Valuation on completion of the sale. WEIGHT: 8.4 grams SIZE: V ½ (UK), 11 (US) – We offer free re-sizing, it takes approx. 1-2 weeks. Please request your size at checkout.
