Description

A beautifully luminous provençal scene with a little peasant woman on a path through a wide and fresh spring landscape. The Alpilles mountain range form a backdrop, while in the foreground we see young vines. Our painting dates from circa 1870-1880. While an inscription on the stretcher reads "Baudin", my personal attribution, based on the trace of signature at the lower right of the painting is to the artist Edouard Cauvin. Edouard Louis Isidore Cauvin was born in Toulon on the mediterranean coast in 1816 and exhibited at the Paris salon from 1938. He mostly devoted himself to the representation of Provençal landscapes and seascapes. Works by the artist are in the fine arts museums of Montauban, Toulon, and the Toulon Maritime Museum. Our oil on canvas measures 24 x 35 cm. It is presented in a frame which is in fair condition only, with visible wear tear and repair. The overall framed size is 31.5 x 42 cm.
