Description

A lovely antique pine pot cupboard dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. The cupboard stands on a plinth base and has a single door with a white ceramic knob which opens to reveal a shelved interior. It is a good quality piece and the pine has mellowed to a nice pale colour. It is in good condition for its age. There are some minor signs of age and use, a few small marks on the top surface and an old shrinkage split in the door but nothing detrimental and it is strong and sturdy. There are a couple of signs of old worm which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the piece structurally or aesthetically. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
