Description

These vibrant and stylish art deco vases from Thomas Forester and Co. are truly eye-catching pieces. Reminiscent of the bold colors and patterns often associated with Clarice Cliff and Charlotte Rhead designs, they exude a sense of flair and sophistication. Featuring an unusual colorway, these vases showcase the creativity and innovation characteristic of the Art Deco period. The intricate patterns and vibrant hues make them stand out as decorative gems. Stamped with the full company backstamp on only one of the vases, they are offered in great condition, a testament to their quality and craftsmanship. These vases would make a fantastic addition to any collection or as statement pieces in a contemporary setting, adding a touch of vintage charm and elegance.
