Description

Fantastic Edwardian mahogany corner cabinet in excellent condition. The cabinet separates into 2 sections which allows for easy transportation in and around your home. This free standing unit has a fabulous carved scrolled pediment with blind fret work frieze sitting above a single astragal 17 pane door. The fixed shelved interior is lined in a pale blue water silk fabric which shows a little age related distress however this can be easy fixed. The base has a small drawer in the centre and shaped shelves underneath with attractive carved columns to the front. It is well proportioned of solid construction with great rich colouring and amazing patina a stylish addition to any corner.
