Description

The large scale floral motifs are beautifully drawn on this antique Tabriz carpet, the vines and delicate flowers are really exquisite. The colour palette with an off white main background lets the other natural dyes shine and showcases their colours. The turquoise to green tone border colour is a beautiful dye and with the golds, pale blues, indigos and greens used for the floral motifs the whole balance of the carpet is quite wonderful. Tabriz are famous for producing finely woven carpets, since the 15th century. This early 20th century example uses designs from ancient Tabriz carpets and is in excellent condition all over. The wool pile is excellent and high all over, no old repairs visible and original fringes are showing on this handsome carpet too. Perfect to enhance any room, it is a durable and strong carpet for the living room, dining room, entrance hall or bedroom. We supply underlay with every carpet to help keep the carpet flat and secure on the floor. If you request a home visit we will happily bring this carpet for you to view in situ at a time and convenient day to suit you. We have offered this free, professional service for over 30 years, our team...
