Description

This exceptionally rare Dutch solid silver novelty corkscrew stands out for its unique design, cleverly crafted in the form of a desk seal featuring a figural Bacchus handle. Bacchus, the Roman god of wine and revelry, takes centre stage in an exquisite and detailed representation as the handle of this functional art piece. The corkscrew is not only a practical tool but also a conversation starter, showcasing the creativity and craftsmanship of Dutch silversmiths. The intricate details of the smiling Bacchus figure add a touch of whimsy and charm to the item, making it a delightful addition to any collection of novelty corkscrews or silverware. Origin: Netherlands Date letter: 1922 88 g / 2.83 t oz 8 cm tall 4.2 cm corkscrew width Excellent antique condition. Minor dings to body.
