Description

Very attractive 18th century sideboard, with cross banding and stringing, standing on six square taper legs. It has an unusually fine breakfront design, great timber, lovely colour and the fantastic scale shows that this must have been made for a grand house indeed. The handles are slightly later Regency replacements which may have been fitted around 1820, we hope that the low price shown here makes up for the later handles. A good value, good looking and decorative sideboard indeed. 213cm / 84" wide 93cm / 36½" high 57.5cm / 22½" deep min 68.5cm / 27" deep max TF045
