Description

A good example of an antique solid silver rose bowl. It is a good quality piece with gadrooned detail around the footed base and bowl and a nice twisted edge around the top. It also comes with a traditional pierced covering. The bowl is clearly hallmarked for Sheffield, 1900 and the maker Atkin Bros. There are no marks on the grill cover so we do not know if this is silver or not. The bowl itself weighs approximately 560g. It is in very good condition and displays beautifully. There are some minor signs of age and use, some light surface marks and small dinks but not major damages or anything detrimental. It has been gently cleaned and polished and is ready for use. Approximate Measurements : Height : 5 1/4" (13.5 cm) Top Diameter : 8 1/4" (21 cm) The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
