SoldItem Reference: SA1058836*Date of manufacture: 1950

Description

An exquisite pair of silver and enamel butterfly earrings. The earrings are beautifully crafted in a warm silver gilt finish with white enamel wings and details in grey and red. These earrings were made by OPRO Produkter, founded in 1945 by Ole-Petter Raasch Olsen, and date from c.1950's. Both earrings bear the OPRO mark on the reverse and are also stamped 'Norway Sterling'. They are stud earrings for pierced ears, which is quite unusual for Norwegian enamel jewellery of this period when ear clips were most common. Very desirable and collectible, and in lovely vintage condition, these earrings are sure to find great appeal with lovers of butterflies and mid century Scandinavian jewellery. Measurements: Width 1.1 cm Height 1.9 cm Weigh 1.97 grams. Weights and measurements are approximate.
