Item Reference: SA1058855

Date of manufacture: 1900

Description

A circular silver pill pot in plain polished silver. Very simple but stylish, the lid is just slightly domed, with the rim and base sitting proud of the plain sides. The only decoration is the fine engraved lines around the rim of the base and the lid to aid grip when opening the box. A lovely box which would look very elegant on a dressing table.

Condition: In super vintage condition. The box opens and closes firmly. Hallmarked as silver by the Chester Assay Office, dated 1904. Makers mark is for Cohen & Charles, with hallmarks to both base and lid.

Measurements: Diameter 3.2 cm Height: 1.1 cm Depth 3.3 cm Weight: 16.3 grams. Weights and measurements are approximate.
