Description

This is a superb antique Victorian golden oak cased three decanter tantalus with decorative silver plated cut brass gothic revival mounts and carry handles to the sides, the decanters with sterling silver labels, circa 1880 in date. This magnificent tantalus features three wonderful hobnail cut square decanters with faceted ball stoppers and a mirrored back. The twin flap compartment in front revealing a delightful divisioned baize lined interior with four cut crystal glasses. The decanters each with a decorative antique Victorian sterling silver label, for Whisky, Sherry and Brandy. There is a secret compartment in the base, which can be opened by pressing the secret button in front of the central decanter, revealing playing cards, cribbage board with score markers and dice. Complete with working Chubb lock and key. It is a truly decorative piece which is also very practical and would make a lovely gift. Condition: In excellent condition having been beautifully cleaned polished and waxed in our workshops, please see photos for confirmation.
