Description

This is a superb antique Victorian walking stick featuring a carved horn handle in the form of a greyhound featuring glass eyes on tapering malacca shaft with a decorative silver band with hallmarks for Birmingham and dated 1874. A truly beautiful piece that would make a fine addition to any antique collection. Condition: In excellent condition with only minor signs of use commensurate with age, as seen in the accompanying photographs, the cane displays beautifully. Dimensions in cm: Height 89 cm x Width 10 cm x Depth 4 cm Dimensions in inches: Height 2 foot, 11 inches x Width 4 inches x Depth 2 inches Malacca wood rare and exotic also known as "King of canes" was the most commonly used material in making the cane shafts where the standard grip was rounded and metallic. Today, designer and collector canes have sterling silver handles, and are made with wooden shafts made from various woods, including Malacca and bamboo. Ornate designs, such as animal heads, skulls, and various emblems may also be carved into the wooden handles; these may make them harder to wield, but some find them more attractive. Malacca is one species of rattan found on the coast of ...
