Description

A small Geo II faded mahogany drop leaf table. Wonderful colour top with great patination, the leaves supported by swinging gates. The table stands on turned tapering legs with pad feet, will seat four people comfortably, can also be used against a wall or as a writing table with one leaf up. There is an old repair on the edge of the rule joint (see photo) otherwise the table is in lovely condition, with the leaves up it measures 120 x102 cm. English Circa 1735.
