Description

This is a lovely early 20th century Queen Anne style three seater sofa in a beautiful bespoke fabric dating from around 1930. The sofa has really comfortable feather filled cushions with a most attractive orange tree design. This has a good solid oak frame with curved Carolean style stretchers and turned baluster block legs. The linen union fabric is in excellent condition throughout and is attractively upholstered both front and back so this could be used in the centre of a room if desired. The sofa measures 114 cms high 178 cms wide by 70 cms deep. The seat is 50 cms deep 50 cms high with 150 cms between the arms. UK delivery can be arranged with our trusted furniture courier and costs £65 plus vat to most destinations.
