Description

An impressive iconic dressing table designed during the 1920's and produced by London cabinet maker Shrager Brothers in their Masterpiece range from 1930 to 1939. Beautifully created with carefully chosen matched walnut veneers. Each one of the drum cabinets (43cm diameter & 74cm tall) is fully fitted with shelf storage, long box front centre drawer below the centre well which was designed to accommodate the tall adjustable dressing mirror. In exceptional condition complete with all original fittings, as shown in the photographs. A fabulous item of practical use and having great designer presence. Inspection welcome.
