Description

This expertly crafted piece is made of solid mahogany with inlaid floral decoration to the fall front. The fall front opens to reveal an interior with a small central drawer and pigeonholes. The body of the bureau has three graduated drawers and is supported on bracket feet. This is a super quality and extremely practical piece of furniture that represents fantastic value for money & would be a great addition to a traditional interior. Please see the other antique furniture we have listed. Dimensions- total height 100cm, working height 71cm, width 78cm, closed depth 42cm and open working depth 73cm.
