Description

A George V era of elegance silver ribbon top photo frame with clear hallmarks for Birmingham 1919. The makers mark is partly rubbed apart from the initial M (which could be for Henry Matthews). The plain silver rectangular frame is mounted on a sturdy oak easel back. The silver frame wraps round the sides of the easel frame. It is embellished with an inward scroll at each corner and is mounted with a silver ribbon top surmount, very much in fashion at the time. The easel back stands well. Both frame and back are in very good condition for the age. Inner image dimensions 15x 9.5cm.
