Description

A lovely George III flame mahogany bow front chest of four graduated drawers on outswept bracket feet. The patina is beautiful due to the fact that it is in the original condition with a very light polish which has enhanced the patina. It is all over decorated with satinwood stringing and inlay. The brass handles are 19th Century replacements. In very good condition. Circa 1780 We can discuss delivery in UK mainland. Payment by bank transfer, Paypal and card via telephone
