Description

We are delighted to offer this exceptionally stylish pair of Victorian 14ct gold & diamond cufflinks, made circa 1890. The pair features a wonderful antique gold tone colour that distinguishes itself from many contemporary cufflinks, radiating a warm and regal gold tone that serves as the perfect accent for a distinguished outfit. Traditional and modest in design, yet its main face engraved with a sharp starburst motif and the rose-cut diamond in the middle makes a subtle statement of splendour and elegance. Despite what could be such a small and insignificant sartorial accoutrement, this pair embraces intricacy, opulence and understated style to the fullest. An excellent addition or gift for the discerning individual and a practical piece of antique jewellery that can be easily worn even today. The gold is unmarked as is common with many articles of this period. As such, we have tested it for 14ct gold. All of our jewellery will come with a complimentary hard shell gift box with a velvet interior. Size & Total Weight Face Size: 1.8cm x 0.9cm 2.6g /0.083 troy oz the pair. Condition: Excellent antique condition with no major issues/damage. Very minor surface...
