Description

A rare late 15th Century / 16th Century Welsh oak coffer. Circa 1500. This rare Tudor valuables chest is in remarkable original condition and of the most outstanding colour and patination. Originally used to store valuable items in a wealthy Welsh manor house. The innovative construction method is associated with the upper Usk and Wye valleys in the counties of Breconshire and Radnorshire. For a similar example and further reading please see. "Welsh Furniture 1250 ~1500" by Richard Bebb. Volume one page 146. A wonderful and substantial example of a Welsh Tudor Chest.
