

SA1060017

Antique Art Nouveau Lenox brown teapot, stand and creamer with sterling silver overlay

Price

Sold

Item Reference: SA1060017

Date of manufacture: Edwardian

Description

Wonderful Art Nouveau porcelain tea set with sterling silver overlay on brown treacle glazed pottery. The ornate floral, scrolling and foliate silver detailing enhances the elegance of each piece, showcasing the craftsmanship typical of the Victorian era. The creamer and trivet are by Lenox, USA, both marked "sterling", dating to c.1900's. The teapot is British, most likely Wedgwood. The sterling mount of the teapot is made by Ernest Lloyd Lawrence and assayed for London, 1910. 1050 g teapot - 16.5 cm tall, 21 cm from spout to handle, 14 cm at widest point stand - 15 cm diameter, 1.5 cm height creamer - 6.5 cm tall, 9 cm diameter, 12 cm at widest point Good antique condition. Repair to teapot handle, lid and tip of spout; small split to silver on teapot below handle; scratches to teapot base; chips missing off teapot lid; stand has scratches and small losses to silver overlay.

Internal Ref: 2792

Seller Details

Gillers Antiques Ltd

Buckland House Buntingford Hertfordshire SG9 OPY United Kingdom

Tel: 07738 009924

International Tel: +44 7738 009924

