Description

A lovely antique oak desk tidy dating from the 19th Century. It has a series of racks for holding papers and letters and there is also a shaped pen tray. Below this is a large drawer with a brass knob. It is a good quality piece with nicely shaped sides and the oak has developed a lovely rich patina. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. There are a few small knocks and marks around the outside, some general signs of age and use and a few small repairs but nothing detrimental. It has been lightly cleaned and polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
