Description

Hutton-Clarke Antiques is delighted to present a striking 19th-century oil-on-canvas portrait by the artist Jambon, dated 1871. This fine artwork features an elegantly dressed gentleman in a black dinner jacket with a dickie bow tie, enhancing his distinguished appearance. Notably, the portrait includes intriguing details such as a French gendarme hat placed to one side, a book, quill pen, and a gold chain for a fob watch, elements that collectively enrich the portrait's historical and aesthetic appeal. This piece, characterized by its quality and the artist's attention to detail, offers a unique decorative value, making it an ideal addition to any collection or home seeking a touch of 19th-century elegance.
