Description

This is a fine quality pair of silver pepper pots, made by the renowned Goldsmiths and Silversmiths Company, London, and assayed in 1907. A good, tactile duo, these are urn-shaped and octagonally faceted, with screw-on lids, and standing on square, plinth bases. Well hallmarked, on both the bases and the lids, they are in excellent antique condition, with no damage, losses or repairs. Please note that there are some murky reflections in the images.

Height: 9.5cm (3.75 inches) Width at widest point: 3.7cm (1.5 inches) Bases: 3cm x 3cm (1.2 inches) Weight: 108 grams.
