Description

A very fine quality 18th Century Triple Top Card Table of fabulous untouched colour and patina, in very good original condition. Made using the finest quality Mahogany timbers and opening to reveal a tea table top and again to reveal a card table with the full compliment of guinea wells and candle stands. Having nicely shaped top and frieze fitted with a drawer, supported by well drawn straight cabriole legs with carved lappet Knee. The hinges are original and have developed a lovely skin, the piece works well and is in very good solid condition. Circa 1760
