Description

This late 1800s walnut Sutherland table is a good shape with the demi lune drop leaves and is in nice tidy condition. Showing very little signs of useage on the top it has had a little tidying in the past and we have rewaxed it upon arrival in our workshops. It has an unusual gallery between the supports and the well turned slim legs. This drop leaf table is priced really keenly and rather less than the nice quality and good overall condition might suggest. The depth is 19cms closed and 95 open. A useful table that takes minimal space closed but offers a reasonable surface open. Really priced to sell.
