Description

1 British Small Important Early 19th Century Antique Regency Bronze Sculpture Bust of William Roscoe by William Spence. Impress your clients & guests in your office or home with this incredible detailed sculpture of William Roscoe. Subject known person William Roscoe shown in front profile, quarter length view, having such a fabulous patina which you will love & cherish, also having such crisp surface detail. A rather nice display size being 15 cm high and 6.3 cm in depth. Signed on the back with inscription published by Edward Flower, Liverpool and modelled by Spence'. Here we have a rather fine rare example as his bust is almost identical to a small marble bust that is held in the collection of the National Portrait Gallery, London (NPG 4147), this sculpture model is believed to be a reduced size version of the bust that was exhibited by the sculptor Spence at the Liverpool Academy in 1813. Only half a dozen were ever issued at around the end of the Regency era 1820. Made from the finest cast bronze. Origin from Britain. Circa early 19th century Regency era. Provenance from a high end auction in the Shires with label underneath also older label inside the sculpture. H...
