Description

This good looking arm chair from the 1800s has been upholstered in our workshops and is now ready for a new life. The frame has been cleaned and repolished. The upholstery is unused except by Teddy and his friend so its of course excellent. The chair sits on a well detailed cabriole leg that extends up into the face of the arm. A lovely item in excellent overall condition. Depth is shown on the seat which is a pretty normal 41cms high. Height and width below are overall sizes.
